BFUHS, Faridkot

SUB: Regarding Issue of Plagiarism Verification Certificate before Submission of Thesis of Ph.D.

Sir,

This has reference to subject cited above and it is pleased to inform your good office that the University has received Plagiarism Detection Software for promotion of academic integrity in the University. As per directions of Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, cooperation of your good office is sought to implement the software and following instructions may kindly be further added or be issued to all concerned (Ph.D. Research Scholars and Ph.D. Section) in letter and spirit to be followed by the Ph.D. Research Scholars of the University:

"The final Plagiarism check from the University Library is essential before submission of Ph.D. thesis in the University and the University Library will issue the final certificate of Plagiarism Check called the Plagiarism Verification Certificate (as per the Annexure - I), certifying and authenticating the check performed by the Research Scholar/Department/College. The fee of issue of certificate is Rs. 500/- (to be deposited by the Research Scholar to the University). This certificate has to be submitted to the Exam Branch at the time of submission of thesis along with originality certificate (already notified by the University on 28.01.2019; Annexure – II) from the Research Scholar signed by the Supervisor."

Hence, necessary actions may be taken for implementation of these instructions through notification on University website also.
